Dear Sirs

Re: { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 } { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_SURNAME_1 }

We have been instructed by our client { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_TITLE_1 } { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 } { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_SURNAME_1 }. We have set out our client's position in his/her grievance/open letter.

Brief details of the strength of your case.

It is clear, from the manner in which our client has been treated that our client continuing employment with the Company is untenable for both parties.

We have advised our client that if he/she was to pursue a claim in the Employment Tribunal, he/she would be successful. No doubt you are aware that the limits for unfair dismissal award are £88,519.00 and the awards for discrimination are unlimited.

If the situation is not resolved amicably, our client will be left with no option but to file such claims in the Employment Tribunal.

- 4. Injury to feeling of { MERGEFIELD FW_EMP_CLM_DET_FW_INJ_FLGS_AMT # £#,##.00}

Our client has made an offer very early in order to try and resolve matters amicably and in the interest of all parties concerned. Our client is disappointed with the way he/she has been treated but would like a resolution.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER_MATTER_DESCRIPTION }

We have been instructed by our client { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_TITLE_1 } { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 } { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_SURNAME_1 }. We have set out our client's position in his/her grievance/open letter.

Brief details of the strength of your case.

We have advised our client that if he/she was to pursue a claim in the Employment Tribunal, he/she would be successful. No doubt you are aware that the limits for unfair dismissal award are £88,519.00 and the awards for discrimination are unlimited.

If the situation is not resolved amicably, our client will be left with no option but to file such claims in the Employment Tribunal.

Our client has advised us that he/she would be prepared to sign a Settlement Agreement provided he/she receives the following:

1.	His	contractual	notice;	{	MERGEFIELD
	FW_EMP_	_TRMS_DTS_FW_N	NOTICE_CNTR }

2. (?) months' gross pay; £

3.	accrued	but	untaken	holiday	pay;	{	MERGEFIELD

4. Injury to feeling of { MERGEFIELD FW_EMP_CLM_DET_FW_INJ_FLGS_AMT # £#,##.00}

Further, our client would want an agreed reference and a contribution to his/her legal fees of £{ MERGEFIELD FW_EMP_SETT_AG_FW_CONTRIB_AMT }. This would of course increase if matters are not resolved quickly.

Our client has made an offer very early in order to try and resolve matters amicably and in the interest of all parties concerned. Our client is disappointed with the way he/she has been treated but would like a resolution.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER_MATTER_DESCRIPTION }

We confirm that we have now received your outcome for the grievance. If you wish to appeal this grievance then you need to do this within [?] days and I calculate your appeal must be sent to your employer by{ MERGEFIELD FW_EMP_HRTGS_FW_APPEAL_DUE \@ "d MMMM yyyy"}.

If we need more time to appeal I can write to your employer and confirm that you intend to appeal and you will shortly provide them with full grounds.

If you are happy with the outcome then you do not have to appeal. If you are unhappy with the outcome and you intend to take matters further against your employer to a tribunal or you wish to try and encourage a settlement then you should appeal.

In my view the grounds of appeal you have are:

You should note that your employer can change the decision of the grievance at the appeal. As a rule of thumb anything you miss out at your appeal you will find it hard to raise at a letter date e.g. at a tribunal hearing.

If you do not wish to attend a hearing for the appeal you can ask that they deal with you in writing, however your employer may insist on you attending the meeting.

Please let me know if you would like me to draft your appeal.

If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER_MATTER_DESCRIPTION }

You have been invited by your employers to attend a grievance hearing on { MERGEFIELD FW_EMP_HRTGS_FW_GRVHRG_DT\@ "d MMMM yyyy"} at { MERGEFIELD FW_EMP_HRTGS_FW_GRVHRG_TM } at { MERGEFIELD FW_EMP_HRTGS_FW_GRVHRG_LC }.

Your legal entitlement is to attend with a colleague of your choice or a trade union representative. If you wish to take any one other than this then we can ask your employer if they will agree to this. Employers are usually reluctant to agree to anyone else. It is not usual for you to take a legal advisor and your employer does not have to agree to this save in exceptional circumstances. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this further.

Your colleague or trade union representative will not be able to answer questions for you that is not their role. They can make representations so be sure that you have discussed your remit with them. If you have a colleague that is nervous about attending, they can simply write notes of the meeting for you. Remember to take this from them at the end of the meeting, for your records. If your employer has a note taker then ask them to let you have a copy of the notes and if they refuse ask that they send you a copy. Do not sign your agreement to any notes taken at the meeting without having sufficient time to review them.

It is unlikely that your employer will agree to a recording device, but we can ask them to let you record the meeting if you wish.

At the grievance hearing, it is important that you answer any questions that you are able to. If you cannot answer or feel reluctant to answer question, suggest that you write down the questions and that you will respond in writing.

You grievance letter should be a good basis for you to outline your grievance. If you are nervous we can help you by putting together a statement that you can hand or read out or prepare some bullet points of the main points you want them to consider.

If you feel you need to take some advice during the hearing, you should ask for a break and telephone us.

We have discussed that if you are made an offer, do not feel pressured to accept there and then but instead ask for some time to consider or ask that they put it in writing for you.

Please contact me once you have had the meeting to discuss how the meeting went. If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

You should note that your employer can change the decision of the grievance at the appeal. This includes reinstatement/dismissal. If you do not want to be reinstated then we need to make this clear. Otherwise you may have to accept the reinstatement if that is what they decide or resign. We will discuss this further should the situation arise.

As a rule of thumb anything you miss out at your appeal you will find it hard to raise at a letter date e.g. at a tribunal hearing.
