Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER MATTER DESCRIPTION }

I am writing further to your potential claim and as we have now resolved how the matter will be funded, I have enclosed with this letter what is known as a 'client care' letter, which sets out how work will be carried out on your file. Please keep this letter safe for future reference.

I have also enclosed with this letter some forms of authority for you to complete to obtain your medical records. Please check the details on the forms before signing them and returning them to me. Once I have received the forms I will then apply for copies of your medical records.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Yours sincerely

Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER MATTER DESCRIPTION }

As we discussed, I enclosed a copy of the Part 36 settlement offer which I have received from { IF { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_DEF1_FW_CN_D1_TRUST_name } <> "" "{ MERGEFIELD FW_CN_DEF1_FW_CN_D1_TRUST_name }" "{ MERGEFIELD "FW_CN_DEF1_FW_CN_D1_FNAME" } { MERGEFIELD "FW_CN_DEF1_FW_CN_D1_SNAME" }" }. The purpose of this letter is to help you decide whether to accept the offer and to help you come to a decision I have explained what a Part 36 offer is, what the defendant has offered you and the consequences of accepting or rejecting this offer.

A Part 36 offer is a special kind of settlement offer governed by Part 36 of the Civil Procedure Rules 1998.

Part 36 of the Civil Procedure Rules 1998 is a complex and detailed area of law. This letter does not attempt to explain every possible use of such an offer but instead summarises how it operates in most ordinary scenarios. It will also propose options for the progression of your case.

I wish to point out the following:

Options available to you

There are a number of options available to you in relation to the offer. You can:

- accept the offer

{INCLUDETEXT "C:\\Users\\NeilB\\OneDrive - PRACCTICE

- reject/not accept the offer
- make a counter offer

Our recommendations

Next steps

I hope this letter comprehensively details the position with Part 36 offers. Once you have had an opportunity to consider the proposed offer of settlement, please contact me to discuss so that I may respond to the defendant.

Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER MATTER DESCRIPTION }

We have discussed options for funding the costs of your case and It appears that none of these options are available or suitable and we have therefore agreed to act on a 'No Win, No Fee' basis. This is called a conditional fee agreement or CFA and we have enclosed the agreement with this letter.

I also enclose with this letter, what is known as a 'client care' letter, which sets out how work will be carried out on this matter under the CFA. Please keep this letter safe. You will see that the letter sets out our charging rates. Please rest assured that these figures are detailed, so we can recover our costs from the Defendants if the case is successful.

Definitions of words used in this letter and the accompanying CFA are explained in the attached glossary of terms.

If You Win Your Case

If you win your case you will be liable to pay the costs detailed below. Some of these you may be able to claim from the Defendant. Details of the costs are shown in the enclosed agreement and are subject to VAT at the prevailing rate.

Our Base Costs

These depend on how much time we spend on your case and are calculated on the hourly rates set out in the attached CFA. You can normally expect to recover a proportion of our base costs from the Defendant. Certain factors can reduce the amount of base costs you recover from the Defendant, for example if the Defendant makes a Part 36 offer to settle your claim which you do not subsequently beat, or the court considers your costs are disproportionate to the value of your claim. We will advise you if and when such factors arise.

Success Fee

The success fee is calculated at { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_CLI_INFO_FW_CN_CFA_SFPER }% of our base costs. This is our compensation for running the risk of not being paid base costs if you are not successful in winning case. This fee cannot be recovered from the Defendant, and you will be liable to pay it. The success fee is subject to a 'cap'. The success fee (including VAT) will not exceed 25% of certain 'damages' unless your claim or a specific issue in your claim goes to appeal. In these circumstances the success fee (including VAT) will not exceed 100% of 'damages'. In summary unless your case goes to appeal you can expect to receive at least 75% of any compensation for past losses and pain, suffering and loss of amenity and 100% of any compensation for future losses and expenses.

Disbursements paid on your behalf

These can include court fees or expert fees and you can normally expect to recover a proportion of our disbursements from the Defendant. You will be liable to pay any shortfall. Certain factors can reduce the amount of disbursements you recover from your Defendant. We will normally try to instruct a barrister on a 'No Win, No Fee' basis. If so, we will advise you at the time what fees you will be liable to pay the barrister. If we cannot instruct a barrister on a 'No Win, No Fee', the barrister's fees will be treated the same as any other disbursement.

If You Lose Your Case

If you lose your case, you will not be liable to pay our base costs or a success fee under the terms of a CFA. However, you will be liable to pay any disbursements spent on your behalf, for example court fees, expert fees or any barrister who does not act on a no-win-no-fee basis. You will also be liable to pay the Defendant's costs.

Ending this agreement

Paying us if you end this agreement

You can end the agreement at any time. We then have the right to decide whether you must:

- pay our base costs and our disbursements including barristers' fees but not the success fee when we ask for them; or
- pay our basic charges, and our disbursements including barristers' fees and success fees if you go on to win your claim for damages.

Paying us if we end this agreement

We can end this agreement if:

- you do not keep to your responsibilities. We then have the right to decide whether you must:
 - pay our basic charges and our disbursements including barristers' fees but not the success fee when we ask for them; or
 - pay our basic charges and our disbursements including barristers' fees and success fees if you go on to win your claim for damages.
- we believe you are unlikely to win. If this happens, you will only have to pay our disbursements. These will include barristers' fees if the barrister does not have a conditional fee agreement with us.
- you reject our opinion about making a settlement with your opponent. You must then:
 - pay the basic charges and our disbursements, including barristers' fees;
 - pay the success fee if you go on to win your claim for damages.

If you ask us to get a second opinion from a specialist solicitor outside our firm, we will do so. You pay the cost of a second opinion.

- you do not pay your insurance premium when asked to do so.

Death

This agreement automatically ends if you die before your claim for damages is concluded. We will be entitled to recover our basic charges up to the date of your death from your estate.

If your personal representatives wish to continue your claim for damages, we may offer them a new conditional fee agreement, as long as they agree to pay the success fee on our basic charges from the beginning of the agreement with you.

What happens after this agreement ends

After this agreement ends, we may apply to have our name removed from the record of any court proceedings in which we are acting unless you have another form of funding and ask us to work for you.

We have the right to preserve our lien unless another solicitor working for you undertakes to pay us what we are owed including a success fee if you win.

Right to cancel

You have the right to cancel this contract within 14 days without giving any reason. We will not start work during the cancellation period unless you expressly ask us to. The 'Instructions for Cancellation' notice, which can be found at Schedule 3 of the enclosed CFA. This will explain how to cancel, the effect of cancellation and what you will be liable for if you ask us to start work during the cancellation period.

Forms of Authority

As well as the documents mentioned above relating to the CFA, I have also enclosed forms of authority for you to complete in order to allow me to obtain your medical records. Please check the details on the forms before signing them and returning them to me. Once I have received the forms I will then apply for copies of your medical records.

What you need to do

This letter encloses:

- The Conditional Fee Agreement in duplicate - Please sign where indicated and return one copy of the agreement to us.
- Request to start work during the cancellation period form - if you would like us to start work during the cancellation period, please complete, sign and return this enclosed form.
- Forms of Authority - Please check, complete and sign these and return to us.

If you have any queries or concerns about this letter or the enclosed documents, please do not hesitate to contact us. I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER MATTER DESCRIPTION }

Thank you for approving the Court Forms and returning them to me.

As you will recall from my last letter, the Defendant has failed to make any acceptable offers of settlement in the claim and it became necessary to take the matter to the more formal stage of issuing court proceedings.

I confirm that having taken your instructions, the claim has now been issued in the County Court on your behalf. Once the papers are received back from the Court, they will be sent to the Defendant who then has 14 days to acknowledge the claim and then a further 14 days to file a Defence.

I will therefore update you in a month when the Defence is filed to advise further.

Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER MATTER DESCRIPTION }

Further to the above, I have enclosed with this letter some information about my firm. This also sets out how we would investigate such a claim and the tests involved in the law for establishing whether or not there has been negligence.

From the brief discussion that we had, I do believe that you are justified in making enquiries to see whether or not there has been substandard treatment (liability) and to establish how you suffered as a result of that substandard treatment (causation). This is not to say that I am saying that you have a claim which will be successful, but on the information you have provided to me to date, I consider the treatment you received warrants further investigation.

In order to investigate your claim, I may need to obtain all of your medical records, including G.P. records. I may also need to obtain independent expert opinion to look at the problems that you have encountered as a result of any potential negligence. I may need to obtain further medical evidence to investigate the harm or damage that you have suffered. { IF { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_CLI_INFO_FW_CN_NHS_COMP } = "No" "

I understand that you have not yet pursued the complaints procedure following the care you have been provided. Following the complaints procedure may provide you with some answers and will also assist if you are to proceed further with a potential claim. For more details abouts the NHS complaints procedure please visit { HYPERLINK "https://www.nhs.uk/using-the-nhs/about-the-nhs/how-to-complain-to-the-nhs/" }.

Everyone who provides an NHS service in England must have their own complaints procedure. You can often find information in waiting rooms, at reception, on the service provider's website, or by asking a member of staff. Any complaint will need to set out a chronology of events, your reasons for the complaint and any questions you have. Try to keep any questions concise so that any response does not skirt around the main issues. Please ensure you keep a copy of any correspondence sent and received. Whilst a complaint can run alongside a legal claim, I would not recommend stating in the letter that you are considering legal advice, as my experience is that the letter of complaint will not be dealt with if you advise them of this. You should expect an acknowledgement and the offer of a discussion about the handling of your complaint within 3 working days of your complaint being received.

Unfortunately we cannot assist with the complaints process, but there is an organisation known as NHS Complaints Advocacy Service, an independent service, who should be able to help you to write a letter of complaint if you need assistance in doing so and they can provide you with free confidential help. For more information on this service visit {
HYPERLINK "https://www.voiceability.org/about-advocacy/types-of-advocacy/nhs-complaints-advocacy" }. "I understand that you have pursued the complaints procedures available to you and I would ask pleased that you provide me with a copy of any correspondence you have in this respect, if you have not yet provided these to me." }

We did briefly discuss the various funding options available when bringing a legal claim. To discuss the case, there has been no charge to you. Please check whether you have any household, car, credit/debit card insurances that may have a legal protection attached to them (often referred to as Legal Expense Cover or BTE - Before the Event insurance). The policy ought to have been in place at the time of the alleged negligence. I therefore suggest that the starting point is for you to check through any insurance policies that you have to see whether or not you have any legal expense cover. Often they can exclude clinical negligence matters but I do feel it is worth checking this area. If you would like to discuss this further, I would be more than happy to do so.

If the funding options discussed above are not available, we would need to consider if the matter is suitable for a 'No Win, No Fee' agreement (Conditional Fee Agreement or CFA). This will mean that if we are not successful in your claim, we would waive our fees. Before proceeding with such an agreement, we must firstly ensure you do not have any Before the Event insurance and consider whether the case would be suitable for a 'no, win, no fee' agreement based on our assessment of the strengths of your case.

If the matter did go on to be funded by way of a 'no win, no fee' agreement, I can advise that if you were successful with a claim of this nature, you would be liable to pay for the following:

- Our base costs calculated by how much time we spend working on your matter based on our hourly rate as set out in the CFA. As a general rule you can expect to recover a portion of this from the defendant. There are factors that can affect the amount of base costs recoverable from the defendant, which we will advise you upon when such factors arise.
- A success fee would be payable from any damages that you receive. Again, this will be set out in the CFA. This is the fee to account for our risk of not being paid our base cost in the event you are not successful in your claim. You are liable for the success fee in full and cannot be recovered from the defendant.
- Any disbursements we pay out on your behalf such as court fees or medical expert fees. As a general rule you can expect to recover a portion of this from the defendant and you would be required to pay any shortfall in the amounts payable. There are again factors that can affect the value of disbursements recoverable from the defendant, which we will advise you upon when such factors arise.
- Any fee for a barrister instructed in your behalf. A barrister would normally also be instructed on a no win no fee basis and details of any such agreement would be advised at the time. If a no win no fee arrangement cannot be agreed with a barrister, the fees would be treated the same as any other disbursement as detailed above.

If you were not successful with your claim, you would not be liable to pay our base costs or the success fee but you would be required to pay any disbursements, barrister costs and the defendants costs.

If the matter were to proceed via a CFA, we would also need to consider obtaining what is known as 'after the event' insurance (ATE) to provide you with further protection. This will cover the legal costs payable to the defendant in the event that the claimant's claim is unsuccessful. I will write to you separately regarding this if required.

I look forward to hearing from you further. Please ensure in the meantime that you keep safe any evidence- such as prescription, letter of complaint/response, medicine boxes etc. if you need to contact me please do not hesitate to do so.

Finally, I must remind you of the time limits applicable to claims for clinical negligence. The law requires all individuals who have sustained personal injuries as a result of another's acts/omissions to bring a claim (that is to issue Court proceedings) within three years of the date of the alleged negligence or three years from the date upon which they suspected/believed or ought reasonably have suspected/believed that they may have suffered as a result of another's acts/omissions. A failure to do so may result in them being prevented from bringing a claim about the matter in the future.

I look forward to hearing from you as to whether you do have 'Before the Event' insurance or whether you wish for us to consider matters under a CFA as above.{ IF { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_CLI_INFO_FW_CN_NHS_COMP } = "No" "Please can you also let me know whether you will be pursuing the NHS complaints procedure as discussed." Of course, should you have any difficulties or queries upon receipt of this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Conditional Fee Agreement ('CFA')

[For use in personal injury and clinical negligence cases only].

This agreement is a binding legal contract between you and your solicitor/s. Before you sign, please read everything carefully. This agreement must be read in conjunction with the Schedules and the Law Society Conditions attached.

I/We, { MERGEFIELD PRACTICEINFO_PRACTICE_NAME } the solicitor/s

You { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 } { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_SURNAME_1 } of { MERGEFIELD "CLIENT_HOUSE" } { MERGEFIELD "CLIENT_AREA" } { MERGEFIELD "CLIENT_POSTAL_TOWN" } { MERGEFIELD "CLIENT_COUNTY" } { MERGEFIELD "CLIENT_POSTCODE" }, the client

What is covered by this agreement

- Your claim for damages for personal injury suffered on or about the { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_DEF1_FW_CN_D1_NEG_DT } as a result of { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_DEF1_FW_CN_D1_INJ_DT }
- Any application for pre-action or non-party disclosure.
- Any appeal by your opponent.
- Any appeal you make against an interim order or an assessment of costs.
- Any proceedings you take to enforce a judgment, order or agreement.
- Negotiations about and/or a court assessment of the costs of this claim.

What is not covered by this agreement

- Any counterclaim against you.
- Any appeal you make against the final judgment or order.

Paying us if you win

If you win your claim, you pay our basic charges, our expenses and disbursements and a success fee together with the premium for any insurance you take out. You are entitled to seek recovery from your opponent of part or all of our basic charges and our expenses and disbursements, but not the success fee or any insurance premium.

[The overall amount we will charge you for our basic charges, success fees, expenses and disbursements is limited as set out in Schedule 2 below.]

It may be that your opponent makes a formal offer to settle your claim which you reject on our advice, and your claim for damages goes ahead to trial where you recover damages that are less than that offer. If this happens, we will [not add our success fee to the basic charges] [not claim any costs] for the work done after we received notice of the offer or payment. In these circumstances, you may be ordered to pay your opponent's costs, but only up to the amount of damages and interest awarded to you.

Expenses and Disbursements

If you receive interim damages, we may require you to pay our expenses and disbursements at that point and a reasonable amount for our future expenses and disbursements.

If you receive provisional damages, we are entitled to payment of our basic charges, our expenses and disbursements and success fee at that point.

If you win overall but on the way lose an interim hearing, you may be required to pay your opponent's charges of that hearing, but usually only up to the amount of damages awarded to you.

If on the way to winning or losing you are awarded any costs, by agreement or court order, then we are entitled to payment of those costs, together with a success fee on those charges if you win overall.

What do I pay if I lose?

If you lose you will normally have the benefit of Qualified One-Way Cost Shifting so the court will not usually enforce an order for costs against you, unless:

- the proceedings have been struck out; or
- the claim is fundamentally dishonest; or
- the claim includes a claim for the financial benefit of someone else.

If you lose, you do not pay our charges [but we may require you to pay our expenses and disbursements].

The Success Fee

The success fee is set out in Schedule 1.

Basic Charges

Details of our basic charges are set out in Schedule 2.

Ending this agreement

If you have a right to cancel this agreement under Schedule 3 (see below) and do so within the 14 day time limit, you will pay nothing. Otherwise if you end this agreement before you win or lose, you pay our basic charges and expenses and disbursements. If you go on to win, you also pay a success fee.

We may end this agreement before you win or lose, with the consequences set out in the Law Society Conditions.

Other points

Definitions of words used in this CFA are explained in the Law Society Conditions.

You have the right to cancel this agreement in the circumstances set out in Schedule 3.

We add VAT, at the rate that applies when the work is done, to the total of the basic charges and success fee. Our VAT Registration Number is { MERGEFIELD VATNO_vat_number }.

[You may be able to take out an insurance policy against the risk of paying expenses and disbursements (but not our charges) if you lose, or some or all of your opponent's costs even if you win. You will be responsible for paying the insurance premium for this if you win. If you lose the premium [is still/is not] payable. Full details are contained in the insurance policy documents. We will give further information about insurance policies to you so that you can decide whether you wish to take one out].

The parties acknowledge and agree that this agreement is not a Contentious Business Agreement within the terms of the Solicitors Act 1974.

Note: We are not bound to act on a conditional fee basis until both you and we have signed this agreement.

Schedule 1

Success fee

The success fee is set at { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_CLI_INFO_FW_CN_CFA_SFPBT }% of our basic charges, where the claim concludes at trial; or { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_CLI_INFO_FW_CN_CFA_SFPER }% where the claim concludes before a trial has commenced.

The success fee percentage reflects the following:

- (a) the fact that if you lose, we will not earn anything;
- (b) our assessment of the risks of your case;
- (c) any other appropriate matters;
- (d) the fact that if you win we will not be paid our basic charges until the end of the claim;
- (e) our arrangements with you about paying expenses and disbursements.
- (f) the arrangements about payment of our costs if your opponent makes a Part 36 offer or payment which you reject on our advice, and your claim for damages goes ahead to trial where you recover damages that are less than that offer or payment.

The Success Fee cannot be more than 100% of the basic charges in total.

Cap on the amount of Success Fee which you will pay us in the event of Success in proceedings at first instance

There is a maximum limit on the amount of the success fee which we can recover from you.

That maximum limit is 25% of the total amount of any:

- (i) general damages for pain suffering and loss of amenity; and
- (ii) damages for pecuniary loss, other than future pecuniary loss;

which are awarded to you in the proceedings covered by this agreement. The maximum limit is applicable to these damages net of any sums recoverable by the Compensation Recovery Unit of the Department of Work and Pensions. The maximum limit is inclusive of any VAT which is chargeable.

[The maximum limit includes any success fee payable to a barrister who has a CFA with us.]

However, this maximum limit applies only to a success fee for proceedings at first instance and not to a success fee on other proceedings (such as, for example, an appeal against a final judgment or order).

We will provide you with a copy of any relevant judgment or of our calculation of any settlement showing how much of your damages should be attributed to General

Damages and Past Pecuniary Loss, net of any sums recoverable by the Compensation Recovery Unit. [If you do not agree our calculation and this makes a difference to the amount of the Success Fee payable you, then we will put the matter for determination by an independent barrister of at least 10 years call, to be appointed by agreement between us or, in default of agreement, by the President of the Law Society of England and Wales, such barrister to act as expert and not as arbitrator and his decision shall be binding. The barrister's costs for assessing this issue are to be paid by you if the barrister agrees with us, but otherwise are to be paid by us.]

You also have the right to apply to the court for assessment of our costs, including our success fee.

Schedule 2

Basic charges

These are for work done from now until this agreement ends. These are subject to review.

How we calculate our basic charges

These are calculated for each hour engaged on your matter. Routine letters and telephone calls will be charged as units of one tenth of an hour. Other letters and telephone calls will be charged on a time basis. The hourly rates are:

Grade of Fee Earner	Hourly Rate
1 Solicitors with over eight years post qualification experience including at least eight years litigation experience.
2 Solicitors and legal executives with over four years post qualification experience including at least four years litigation experience.
3 Other solicitors and legal executives and fee earners of equivalent experience
4 Trainee solicitors, para legals and other fee earners.

We review the hourly rate in [month] each year and we will notify you of any change in the rate in writing.

[Fixed Fees/Costs]

[The above hourly rates may not apply if your claim is subject to a specific fixed fee arrangement agreed between us. If a specific fixed fee arrangement has been agreed with you it is set out below and that fee plus expenses payable by you will be the amount of legal costs payable by you less any amount recovered from your opponent.]

[Overall cap on your liability for costs]

[We will limit the total amount of charges, success fees, expenses and disbursements (inclusive of VAT) payable by you (net of any contribution to your costs paid by your opponent) to a maximum of [25%] of the damages you receive].

Law Society Conditions

The Law Society Conditions below are part of this agreement. Any amendments or additions to them will apply to you. You should read the conditions carefully and ask us about anything you find unclear.

Our responsibilities

We must:

- always act in your best interests, subject to our duty to the court;
- explain to you the risks and benefits of taking legal action;
- give you our best advice about whether to accept any offer of settlement;
- give you the best information possible about the likely costs of your claim for damages.

Your responsibilities

You must:

- give us instructions that allow us to do our work properly;
- not ask us to work in an improper or unreasonable way;
- not deliberately mislead us;
- co-operate with us;
- go to any medical or expert examination or court hearing.

Dealing with costs if you win

- [Subject to any overall cap agreed with you] you are liable to pay all our basic charges, our expenses and disbursements and the success fee (up to the maximum limit) [together with the premium of any insurance policy you take out].
- Normally, you can claim part or all of our basic charges and our expenses and disbursements from your opponent,. You provide us with your irrevocable agreement to pursue such a claim on your behalf. However, you cannot claim from your opponent the success fees [or the premium of any insurance policy you take out].
- If we and your opponent cannot agree the amount, the court will decide how much you can recover. If the amount agreed or allowed by the court does not cover all our basic charges and our expenses and disbursements, then you pay the difference [up to any maximum agreed with you].
- You, not your opponent, pay our success fee [and any insurance premium].

- You agree that after winning, the reasons for setting the success fee at the amount stated may be disclosed to the court and any other person required by the court.
- If your opponent is receiving Community Legal Service funding, we are unlikely to get any money from him or her. So if this happens, you have to pay us our basic charges, expenses and disbursements and success fee.

We are allowed to keep any interest your opponent pays on the charges.

You agree to pay into a designated account any cheque received by you or by us from your opponent and made payable to you. Out of the money, you agree to let us take the balance of the basic charges; success fee; [insurance premium]; our remaining expenses and disbursements; and VAT.

You take the rest.

If your opponent fails to pay monies due to you

If your opponent does not pay any damages or charges owed to you, we have the right to take recovery action in your name to enforce a judgment, order or agreement. The charges of this action become part of the basic charges.

Payment for advocacy

The cost of advocacy and any other work by us, or by any solicitor agent on our behalf, forms part of our basic charges. We shall discuss with you the identity of any barrister instructed, and the arrangements made for payment.

Barristers who have a conditional fee agreement with us

If you win, you are normally entitled to recover their fee from your opponent, but not their success fee. The barrister's success fee is shown in the separate conditional fee agreement we make with the barrister. You must pay the barrister's success fee shown in the separate conditional fee agreement we make with the barrister. We will discuss the barrister's success fee with you before we instruct him or her. If you lose, you pay the barrister nothing.

[The barrister's success fee is included within the maximum limit to the recoverable success fee in proceedings at first instance as explained in Schedule 1].

Barristers who do not have a conditional fee agreement with us

If you win, then you will normally be entitled to recover all or part of their fee from your opponent. If you lose, then you must pay their fee.

What happens when this agreement ends before your claim for damages ends?

(a) Paying us if you end this agreement

You can end the agreement at any time. Unless you have a right to cancel this agreement under Schedule 3 and do so within the 14 day time limit we then have the right to decide whether you must:

- pay our basic charges and our expenses and disbursements including barristers' fees but not the success fee when we ask for them; or
- pay our basic charges, and our expenses and disbursements including barristers' fees and success fees if you go on to win your claim for damages.

(b) Paying us if we end this agreement

- (i) We can end this agreement if you do not keep to your responsibilities. We then have the right to decide whether you must:
 - pay our basic charges and our expenses and disbursements including barristers' fees but not the success fee when we ask for them; or
 - pay our basic charges and our expenses and disbursements including barristers' fees and success fees if you go on to win your claim for damages.
- (ii) We can end this agreement if we believe you are unlikely to win. If this happens, you will [pay nothing] [only have to pay our expenses and disbursements]. [These will include barristers' fees if the barrister does not have a conditional fee agreement with us.]
- (iii) We can end this agreement if you reject our opinion about making a settlement with your opponent. You must then:
 - pay the basic charges and our expenses and disbursements, including barristers' fees;
 - pay the success fee if you go on to win your claim for damages.

If you ask us to get a second opinion from a specialist solicitor outside our firm, we will do so. You pay the cost of a second opinion.

[(iv) We can end this agreement if you do not pay your insurance premium when asked to do so.]

(c) Death

This agreement automatically ends if you die before your claim for damages is concluded. We will be entitled to recover our basic charges up to the date of your death from your estate.

If your personal representatives wish to continue your claim for damages, we may offer them a new conditional fee agreement, as long as they agree to pay the success fee on our basic charges from the beginning of the agreement with you.

What happens after this agreement ends

After this agreement ends, we may apply to have our name removed from the record of any court proceedings in which we are acting unless you have another form of funding and ask us to work for you.

We have the right to preserve our lien unless another solicitor working for you undertakes to pay us what we are owed including a success fee if you win.

Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER MATTER DESCRIPTION }

I am now about to deal with the stage in your court case known as 'disclosure'.

You will know, from my letter summarising the steps in the court proceedings, that this stage of the case involves disclosure of relevant documents. I must therefore prepare a list of all documents you have, or have had, relating to the claim. This list must be filed at court and sent to { IF { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_DEF1_FW_CN_D1_TRUST_name } <> "" "{ MERGEFIELD FW_CN_DEF1_FW_CN_D1_TRUST_name }" "{ MERGEFIELD "FW_CN_DEF1_FW_CN_D1_FNAME" } { MERGEFIELD "FW_CN_DEF1_FW_CN_D1_SNAME" }" } ('the Defendant').

In return, the Defendant must file at court, and send to us, a list of all documents the Defendant has, or has had, relating to the claim. We may well obtain useful information from such documents disclosed by the Defendant.

Disclosure is a very important part of the preparation of the case for a final hearing, if necessary. Accordingly it is essential that the list of documents sent out on your behalf complies with the requirements of the court. As you will need to sign the list confirming that you have complied with these requirements, it is important that I explain in some detail exactly what the court expects.

1. The documents to be disclosed

(1) The court expects disclosure of:

- (i) documents on which you rely; and
- (ii) documents which adversely affect your case; and
- (iii) documents which adversely affect the Defendant's case; and
- (iv) documents which support the Defendant's case.

{INCLUDETEXT "C:\\Users\\NeilB\\OneDrive - PRACCTICE
LTD\\Documents\\OspreyOfficeGateway\\footer.doc"}

Either

[If you refer back to the letter I sent you detailing points raised in the Defence, you will know the main issues in the case, which should help identify documents which support or adversely affect any party's case.]

Or

[In a case of this kind the court will however expect disclosure only of such documents which relate to claims for financial losses and expenses arising out of the injuries.]

- (2) The term 'documents' includes any:
 - (i) written documents;
 - (ii) photographs;
 - (iii) video recordings;
 - (iv) tape recordings;
 - (v) computer records;
 - (vi) e-mails;
 - (vii) other permanent or semi-permanent records.
- (3) However only documents in your control have to be disclosed. The court regards a document as being in your control if:
 - (i) it is in your physical possession; or
 - (ii) you have, or have had, a right to physical possession of the document; or
 - (iii) you have, or have had, a right to see or take copies of the document.
- (4) In a case of this kind typical documents which would be relevant and ought to be disclosed would include:
 - (i) receipts for any property damaged in the accident;
 - (ii) receipts for any expenditure incurred as a result of the injuries;
 - [(iii) any documentation relating to how the injuries were suffered;]
 - [(iv) any contract or written particulars of terms of employment;
 - (v) safety literature;]
 - [(vi) tax documentation;
 - (vii) State benefit documentation;
 - (viii) pay slips or pay advices.]

You do not need to let me have letters or other documents I have sent you as of course copies are in my file, and I am arranging to include these where appropriate, in the list.

2. The duty of search

- (1) The court expects a reasonable search to be made for documents.
- (2) In particular I need to know if you have not undertaken any search for:
 - (i) documents pre-dating a particular date;
 - (ii) documents which may be at any particular location;
 - (iii) documents in any particular category.

Unless I hear from you to the contrary I shall assume the search has not been limited in any such way.

3. The format of the list

- (1) The list must disclose any documents in your control, including any that have come into existence since the case began. Accordingly if you do have any further documents, please could you let me have them without delay.
- (2) The list must also disclose any documents you have had but no longer have, with details of:
 - (i) a description of any such documents; and
 - (ii) what has happened to those documents.

If there are any such documents please can you let me have the necessary details. Unless I hear from you accordingly I shall assume there are no such documents.

I am sorry to have to write at some length on this stage of the case, but it is important to stress that the court expects disclosure of relevant documents to be dealt with very carefully.

Based on the documentation already available to me I have prepared and enclose a draft list of documents for your approval. Once you have read this letter would you please check the draft list to ensure that all relevant documents are disclosed. If you are content that the list is complete, please sign it in the space provided on the second page and then return it to me in the pre-paid envelope also enclosed. If however there are any further documents that ought to be disclosed in the list, please could you return the draft list either amended or with a separate note attached detailing those documents so that the list can be amended ready for final approval.

If you are not sure whether further documents ought to be disclosed in the list please telephone me.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely

Court: { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_COURT_FW_CN_COURT_name }

I write further to our previous correspondence.

Thank you for agreeing to give evidence in the claim being brought by { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_SURNAME_1" }. I understand that you are able to give evidence about [DETAILS OF INFORMATION OR EVENTS TO BE COVERED BY WITNESS STATEMENT].

I thought it would be useful if, at this stage, I set out the steps that will be taken to prepare your witness statement. I have also included some general advice on how to prepare to give your evidence and how to deal with cross-examination by the other side's representative.

Your witness statement

Early preparation of your statement will ensure that:

- a) Your recollection is set down on paper while matters are as fresh in your mind and before they are subject to challenge;
- b) You have a proper opportunity to think about the matters and/or events you are dealing with and your evidence is presented in a clear and logical fashion;
- c) You have the chance to thoroughly consider any documents referred to in your statement;
- d) The words used in the statement are your own, you are comfortable with what you have said, and you are not committed to say anything that you do not really mean; and
- e) We can identify any areas of difficulty or concern at an early stage so that you can be properly prepared to deal with them at the hearing.

Preparing for the hearing

{INCLUDETEXT "C:\\Users\\NeilB\\OneDrive - PRACCTICE LTD\\Documents\\OspreyOfficeGateway\\footer.doc"}

Once your statement has been finalised, in preparation for giving evidence at the hearing you should practise reading your statement slowly out loud a number of times. Doing this should avoid two situations that commonly make witnesses look foolish and damage their credibility:

- a) A witness who reads out their statement in a faltering fashion suggests that the words they are reading are unfamiliar. The court may conclude that the words they are hearing are not their own; or
- b) A witness contradicts their statement when they answer a question in cross-examination.

A witness who remains calm and sticks to their evidence is difficult for even a skilled cross-examiner to undermine.

Giving evidence at the hearing

When you are called to give evidence, you will be asked to take the oath. This will involve either swearing on a holy book or, if you are not religious, affirming. Our representative will then ask you to take the court through your account of what happened. They will ask questions as required. These questions will also enable you to get comfortable with the process of answering questions before the court.

Once our representative has finished asking you questions, the other party's representative will have the opportunity to cross-examine you. Since this is the part of giving evidence that most often worries witnesses, I have set out some advice below about how to give evidence effectively when being cross-examined.

After you have been cross-examined, our representative will be permitted to ask you further questions about matters that have come up during your cross-examination.

How to give evidence effectively

This is very simple: do what the oath requires of you. Tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

Dealing with possibilities

You should only tell the court things you know for a fact. The cross-examiner may ask you to speculate about whether it is possible that a particular event occurred. Contrary to what is commonly assumed, you cannot refuse to answer a question merely because it is hypothetical. The issues commonly dealt with by courts often involve the consideration of hypothetical matters.

If you are asked whether something was possible, unless you tell the court how likely you think it was they will be left guessing. Therefore, if you think that there was a slight possibility of that something happening or having happened, rather than saying that it was possible you should let the court know how likely it was. For example, you could say that it was possible but would have been very unlikely.

When you can't remember something

If you have no recollection of something you are asked about, don't be tempted to tell the court what you assume must have happened as if you know it for a matter of fact. You should say that you do not recall the particular matter in issue but think it likely that a particular scenario would have happened and explain why you think that to be the case. Be honest or the cross-examiner will force you to admit you can't remember and you will look foolish for not having been honest in the first place.

Being asked for a yes or no answer

The most popular line of attack for a cross-examiner is the closed question. You will become familiar with the phrase "it's a yes or no answer". You probably won't agree.

The temptation when faced with an unreasonably restrictive question is to not answer it and instead to answer the question you think you should have been asked. However, this will make you appear evasive and unhelpful and will not endear you to the court. It is better to either answer yes or no, but to state that is not a complete answer and there are other things the court should know in order to be able to understand it. Then, the court will either let you expand your answer immediately or you will at least have brought your representative's attention to this issue as being one that you should be taken back to in re-examination.

Answer the question and avoid repetition

You should keep your answers to the questions that you are asked. You can undermine your credibility and the strength of your evidence if you take each question as an opportunity to repeat the same thing.

Dealing with the cross-examiner

Do not be tempted to argue with the cross-examiner. You will come across as being deliberately difficult and evasive, which courts hate. It is far better to stay calm and focus on dealing with the questions put to you.

If there are any matters of particular concern to you about either the evidence you are to give or that may be put to you in cross-examination you should let me know now.

So that we can start on the preparation of your statement I would be grateful if you could contact me to arrange a mutually convenient time for us to discuss.

Yours Sincerely

I write further to our previous correspondence.

Thank you for agreeing to give evidence in the claim being brought by { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_SURNAME_1" }. I understand that you are able to give evidence about [DETAILS OF INFORMATION OR EVENTS TO BE COVERED BY WITNESS STATEMENT].

I thought it would be useful if, at this stage, I set out the steps that will be taken to prepare your witness statement. I have also included some general advice on how to prepare to give your evidence and how to deal with cross-examination by the other side's representative.

Your witness statement

Early preparation of your statement will ensure that:

- a) Your recollection is set down on paper while matters are as fresh in your mind and before they are subject to challenge;
- b) You have a proper opportunity to think about the matters and/or events you are dealing with and your evidence is presented in a clear and logical fashion;
- c) You have the chance to thoroughly consider any documents referred to in your statement;
- d) The words used in the statement are your own, you are comfortable with what you have said, and you are not committed to say anything that you do not really mean; and
- e) We can identify any areas of difficulty or concern at an early stage so that you can be properly prepared to deal with them at the hearing.

Preparing for the hearing

{INCLUDETEXT "C:\\Users\\NeilB\\OneDrive - PRACCTICE LTD\\Documents\\OspreyOfficeGateway\\footer.doc"}

Once your statement has been finalised, in preparation for giving evidence at the hearing you should practise reading your statement slowly out loud a number of times. Doing this should avoid two situations that commonly make witnesses look foolish and damage their credibility:

- a) A witness who reads out their statement in a faltering fashion suggests that the words they are reading are unfamiliar. The court may conclude that the words they are hearing are not their own; or
- b) A witness contradicts their statement when they answer a question in cross-examination.

A witness who remains calm and sticks to their evidence is difficult for even a skilled cross-examiner to undermine.

Giving evidence at the hearing

When you are called to give evidence, you will be asked to take the oath. This will involve either swearing on a holy book or, if you are not religious, affirming. Our representative will then ask you to take the court through your account of what happened. They will ask questions as required. These questions will also enable you to get comfortable with the process of answering questions before the court.

Once our representative has finished asking you questions, the other party's representative will have the opportunity to cross-examine you. Since this is the part of giving evidence that most often worries witnesses, I have set out some advice below about how to give evidence effectively when being cross-examined.

After you have been cross-examined, our representative will be permitted to ask you further questions about matters that have come up during your cross-examination.

How to give evidence effectively

This is very simple: do what the oath requires of you. Tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

Dealing with possibilities

You should only tell the court things you know for a fact. The cross-examiner may ask you to speculate about whether it is possible that a particular event occurred. Contrary to what is commonly assumed, you cannot refuse to answer a question merely because it is hypothetical. The issues commonly dealt with by courts often involve the consideration of hypothetical matters.

If you are asked whether something was possible, unless you tell the court how likely you think it was they will be left guessing. Therefore, if you think that there was a slight possibility of that something happening or having happened, rather than saying that it was possible you should let the court know how likely it was. For example, you could say that it was possible but would have been very unlikely.

When you can't remember something

If you have no recollection of something you are asked about, don't be tempted to tell the court what you assume must have happened as if you know it for a matter of fact. You should say that you do not recall the particular matter in issue but think it likely that a particular scenario would have happened and explain why you think that to be the case. Be honest or the cross-examiner will force you to admit you can't remember and you will look foolish for not having been honest in the first place.

Being asked for a yes or no answer

The most popular line of attack for a cross-examiner is the closed question. You will become familiar with the phrase "it's a yes or no answer". You probably won't agree.

The temptation when faced with an unreasonably restrictive question is to not answer it and instead to answer the question you think you should have been asked. However, this will make you appear evasive and unhelpful and will not endear you to the court. It is better to either answer yes or no, but to state that is not a complete answer and there are other things the court should know in order to be able to understand it. Then, the court will either let you expand your answer immediately or you will at least have brought your representative's attention to this issue as being one that you should be taken back to in re-examination.

Answer the question and avoid repetition

You should keep your answers to the questions that you are asked. You can undermine your credibility and the strength of your evidence if you take each question as an opportunity to repeat the same thing.

Dealing with the cross-examiner

Do not be tempted to argue with the cross-examiner. You will come across as being deliberately difficult and evasive, which courts hate. It is far better to stay calm and focus on dealing with the questions put to you.

If there are any matters of particular concern to you about either the evidence you are to give or that may be put to you in cross-examination you should let me know now.

So that we can start on the preparation of your statement I would be grateful if you could contact me to arrange a mutually convenient time for us to discuss.

Yours Sincerely

I write further to our previous correspondence.

Thank you for agreeing to give evidence in the claim being brought by { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_SURNAME_1" }. I understand that you are able to give evidence about [DETAILS OF INFORMATION OR EVENTS TO BE COVERED BY WITNESS STATEMENT].

I thought it would be useful if, at this stage, I set out the steps that will be taken to prepare your witness statement. I have also included some general advice on how to prepare to give your evidence and how to deal with cross-examination by the other side's representative.

Your witness statement

Early preparation of your statement will ensure that:

- a) Your recollection is set down on paper while matters are as fresh in your mind and before they are subject to challenge;
- b) You have a proper opportunity to think about the matters and/or events you are dealing with and your evidence is presented in a clear and logical fashion;
- c) You have the chance to thoroughly consider any documents referred to in your statement;
- d) The words used in the statement are your own, you are comfortable with what you have said, and you are not committed to say anything that you do not really mean; and
- e) We can identify any areas of difficulty or concern at an early stage so that you can be properly prepared to deal with them at the hearing.

Preparing for the hearing

{INCLUDETEXT "C:\\Users\\NeilB\\OneDrive - PRACCTICE LTD\\Documents\\OspreyOfficeGateway\\footer.doc"}

Once your statement has been finalised, in preparation for giving evidence at the hearing you should practise reading your statement slowly out loud a number of times. Doing this should avoid two situations that commonly make witnesses look foolish and damage their credibility:

- a) A witness who reads out their statement in a faltering fashion suggests that the words they are reading are unfamiliar. The court may conclude that the words they are hearing are not their own; or
- b) A witness contradicts their statement when they answer a question in cross-examination.

A witness who remains calm and sticks to their evidence is difficult for even a skilled cross-examiner to undermine.

Giving evidence at the hearing

When you are called to give evidence, you will be asked to take the oath. This will involve either swearing on a holy book or, if you are not religious, affirming. Our representative will then ask you to take the court through your account of what happened. They will ask questions as required. These questions will also enable you to get comfortable with the process of answering questions before the court.

Once our representative has finished asking you questions, the other party's representative will have the opportunity to cross-examine you. Since this is the part of giving evidence that most often worries witnesses, I have set out some advice below about how to give evidence effectively when being cross-examined.

After you have been cross-examined, our representative will be permitted to ask you further questions about matters that have come up during your cross-examination.

How to give evidence effectively

This is very simple: do what the oath requires of you. Tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth.

Dealing with possibilities

You should only tell the court things you know for a fact. The cross-examiner may ask you to speculate about whether it is possible that a particular event occurred. Contrary to what is commonly assumed, you cannot refuse to answer a question merely because it is hypothetical. The issues commonly dealt with by courts often involve the consideration of hypothetical matters.

If you are asked whether something was possible, unless you tell the court how likely you think it was they will be left guessing. Therefore, if you think that there was a slight possibility of that something happening or having happened, rather than saying that it was possible you should let the court know how likely it was. For example, you could say that it was possible but would have been very unlikely.

When you can't remember something

If you have no recollection of something you are asked about, don't be tempted to tell the court what you assume must have happened as if you know it for a matter of fact. You should say that you do not recall the particular matter in issue but think it likely that a particular scenario would have happened and explain why you think that to be the case. Be honest or the cross-examiner will force you to admit you can't remember and you will look foolish for not having been honest in the first place.

Being asked for a yes or no answer

The most popular line of attack for a cross-examiner is the closed question. You will become familiar with the phrase "it's a yes or no answer". You probably won't agree.

The temptation when faced with an unreasonably restrictive question is to not answer it and instead to answer the question you think you should have been asked. However, this will make you appear evasive and unhelpful and will not endear you to the court. It is better to either answer yes or no, but to state that is not a complete answer and there are other things the court should know in order to be able to understand it. Then, the court will either let you expand your answer immediately or you will at least have brought your representative's attention to this issue as being one that you should be taken back to in re-examination.

Answer the question and avoid repetition

You should keep your answers to the questions that you are asked. You can undermine your credibility and the strength of your evidence if you take each question as an opportunity to repeat the same thing.

Dealing with the cross-examiner

Do not be tempted to argue with the cross-examiner. You will come across as being deliberately difficult and evasive, which courts hate. It is far better to stay calm and focus on dealing with the questions put to you.

If there are any matters of particular concern to you about either the evidence you are to give or that may be put to you in cross-examination you should let me know now.

So that we can start on the preparation of your statement I would be grateful if you could contact me to arrange a mutually convenient time for us to discuss.

Yours Sincerely

Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER MATTER_DESCRIPTION }

Please find enclosed draft Part 36 Offer for your approval.

In this letter I will explain in more detail how a Part 36 offer works, and the potential advantages and disadvantages of making one in your case.

A Part 36 offer is a special kind of settlement offer governed by Part 36 of the Civil Procedure Rules 1998.

Part 36 of the Civil Procedure Rules 1998 is a complex and detailed area of law. This letter does not attempt to explain every possible use of such an offer but instead summarises how it operates in most ordinary scenarios. It will also propose options for the progression of your case.

I wish to point out the following:

Next steps

I hope this letter comprehensively details the position with Part 36 offers. Once you have had an opportunity to consider the proposed offer of settlement, please contact me to discuss so that I may draft the relevant letter to the defendant.

Yours sincerely

 - the party bringing the original claim or appeal can make (a) a claimant's offer on such claim or appeal; or (b) a defendant's offer on the counterclaim or cross-appeal.

In any case the offeror should make plain whether the offer takes into account any adverse claim. For example, when making an offer on a claim, state whether it takes into account the counterclaim. Equally when making an offer on a counterclaim, state whether it takes into account the claim. [See rules 36.2(3), 20.2 & 20.3 in respect of counterclaims and other additional claims.  - A party making a claimant's offer is offering to accept something to settle their own claim, counterclaim, additional claim, appeal, cross-appeal or costs assessment proceedings on terms that their opponent pays their costs.

who is [1st][2nd][3rd]{ FORMTEXT }][Claimant][Defendant][Part 20 claimant] in this claim

You should note the date by which this questionnaire must be returned and the name of the court it should be returned to since this may be different from the court where the proceedings were issued.

If you have settled this claim (or if you settle it on a future date) and do not need to have it heard or tried, you must let the court know immediately.

If the claim is not settled, a judge will allocate it to an appropriate case management track. To help the judge choose the most just and cost-effective track, you must now complete the directions questionnaire.

You should write the claim number on any other documents you send with your directions questionnaire. Please ensure they are firmly attached to it.

A Settlement

Under the Civil Procedure Rules parties should make every effort to settle their case before the hearing. This could be by discussion or negotiation (such as a roundtable meeting or settlement conference) or by a more formal process such as mediation. The court will want to know what steps have been taken. Settling the case early can save costs, including court hearing fees.

For legal representatives only

I confirm that I have explained to my client the need to try to settle; the options available; and the possibility of costs sanctions if they refuse to { FORMCHECKBOX } I confirm try to settle.

For all

Your answers to these questions may be considered by the court when it deals with the questions of costs: see Civil Procedure Rules Part 44.

1. Given that the rules require you to try to settle the claim before the hearing, do you want to attempt to settle at this stage? { FORMCHECKBOX } Yes { FORMCHECKBOX } No

2. If Yes, do you want a one month stay? { FORMCHECKBOX } Yes { FORMCHECKBOX } No

3. If you answered 'No' to question 1, please state below the reasons why you consider it inappropriate to try to settle the claim at this stage.

Reasons:

Notes

The court may order a stay, whether or not all the other parties to the claim agree. Even if you are requesting a stay, you must still complete the rest of the questionnaire.

More information about mediation, the fees charged and a directory of mediation providers is available online from www.civilmediation.justice.gov.uk This service provides members of the public and businesses with contact details for national civil and commercial mediation providers, all of whom are accredited by the Civil Mediation Council.

Notes

High Court cases are usually heard at the Royal Courts of Justice or certain Civil Trial Centres. Fast or multi-track trials may be dealt with at a Civil Trial Centre or at the court where the claim is proceeding.

Before any claim is started, the court expects you to have complied with the relevant pre-action protocol, and to have exchanged information and documents relevant to the claim to assist in settling it. To find out which protocol is relevant to your claim see: www.justice.gov.uk/guidance/courts-and-tribunals/courts/procedure-rules/civil/menus/protocol.htm

D1. Applications

It is important for the court to know if you have already made any applications in the claim (or are about to issue one), what they are for and when they will be heard. The outcome of the applications may affect the case management directions the court gives.

If you have indicated in the proposed directions a track attached which would not be the normal track for the claim, please give brief reasons below for your choice.

{ FORMTEXT }

The basic guide by which claims are normally allocated to a track is the amount in dispute, although other factors such as the complexity of the case will also be considered. Leaflet EX305 – The Fast Track and the Multi-track, explains this in greater detail.

D3. Disclosure of electronic documents (multi-track cases only)

If you have settled this claim (or if you settle it on a future date) and do not need to have it heard or tried, you must let the court know immediately.

A Settlement/Mediation

Under the Civil Procedure Rules parties should make every effort to settle their case. At this stage you should still think about whether you and the other party(ies) can settle your dispute without going to a hearing.

You may seek to settle the claim either by direct discussion or negotiation with the other party or by mediation. If settlement is reached parties may enter into a binding agreement which can be enforced if the terms of the agreement were to be breached.

Mediation is a way of resolving disputes without a court hearing, where the parties are assisted in resolving their dispute with the help of an impartial mediator. If the claim is settled at this stage the parties can avoid further court fees, costs and time involved in preparing and attending a hearing.

You may use any mediation provider. However, HMCTS provide a free confidential Small Claims Mediation Service which is available to parties in most small claims cases which are for less than £10,000.

Mediation is usually carried out by telephone in one hour time limited appointments convenient to the parties and is quicker than waiting for a court hearing before a judge. There is no obligation to use the Small Claims Mediation Service nor are you required to settle if you do. If you are unable to reach agreement with the other party at mediation, the claim will proceed to a small claims hearing before a judge.

You can get more information about mediation from www.gov.uk

If all parties agree, this case will be referred to the Small Claims Mediation Service. In any event the court may order the service to contact you to explore mediation.

Notes

Track

The small claims track – generally for lower value and less complex claims with a value under £10,000. You can get more information by reading leaflet EX306 'The small claims track in civil courts'. You can get this leaflet online from hmctsformfinder.justice.gov.uk

Location

If your claim is a designated money claim the case will usually be transferred to the claimants preferred court or the defendants home court as appropriate. However, there is no guarantee of transfer to this court. For further information see CPR Parts 3, 12, 13, 14 and 26.

Expert evidence

The court must grant you permission to use an expert witness. Your notice of allocation will tell you if permission has been granted. Please note the upper limit for experts' fees that can be recovered is £750. You can get more information by reading leaflet EX306 'The small claims track in civil courts'. You can get this leaflet online from hmctsformfinder.justice.gov.uk

Witnesses

Witnesses may be asked to give evidence by either party. The court needs to have notice that you intend to call a witness. Witness expenses for travel accommodation and loss of earning should be met by the party requesting their attendance. You can get more information by reading EX342 'Coming to a court hearing'. You can get this leaflet online from hmctsformfinder.justice.gov.uk

Hearing

Dates to avoid: You should enter those dates where you, your expert or an essential witness will not be able to attend court because of a holiday or other commitments.

Interpreters: In some circumstances the court will arrange for, and meet the cost of an interpreter. If you require an interpreter, you should contact the court immediately. Further details visit our website www.justice.gov.uk under 'guidance'.

Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER_MATTER_DESCRIPTION }

Further to the above, I have enclosed with this letter some information about my firm. This also sets out how we would investigate such a claim and the tests involved in the law for establishing whether or not there has been negligence.

From the brief discussion that we had, I do believe that you are justified in making enquiries to see whether or not there has been substandard treatment (liability) and to establish how { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 } suffered as a result of that substandard treatment (causation). This is not to say that I am saying that you have a claim which will be successful, but on the information you have provided to me to date, I consider the treatment { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 } received warrants further investigation.

In order to investigate the claim I may need to obtain copies of all medical records, including G.P. records. I may also need to obtain independent expert opinion to look at the problems that { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 } has encountered as a result of any potential negligence. I may need to obtain further medical evidence to investigate the harm or damage that { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 } has suffered.{ IF { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_CLI_INFO_FW_CN_NHS_COMP } = "No" "

I understand that you have not yet pursued the complaints procedure following the care you have been provided. Following the complaints procedure may provide you with some answers and will also assist if you are to proceed further with a potential claim. For more details abouts the NHS complaints procedure please visit { HYPERLINK "https://www.nhs.uk/using-the-nhs/about-the-nhs/how-to-complain-to-the-nhs/" }.}

Everyone who provides an NHS service in England must have their own complaints procedure. You can often find information in waiting rooms, at reception, on the service provider's website, or by asking a member of staff. Any complaint will need to set out a chronology of events, your reasons for the complaint and any questions you have. Try to keep any questions concise so that any response does not skirt around the main issues. Please ensure you keep a copy of any correspondence sent and received. Whilst a complaint can run alongside a legal claim, I would not recommend stating in the letter that you are considering legal advice, as my experience is that the letter of complaint will not be dealt with if you advise them of this. You should expect an acknowledgement and the offer of a discussion about the handling of your complaint within 3 working days of your complaint being received.

Unfortunately we cannot assist with the complaints process, but there is an organisation known as NHS Complaints Advocacy Service, an independent service, who should be able to help you to write a letter of complaint if you need assistance in doing so and they can provide you with free confidential help. For more information on this service visit { HYPERLINK "https://www.voiceability.org/about-advocacy/types-of-advocacy/nhs-complaints-advocacy" }. " " }

We did briefly discuss the various funding options available when bringing a legal claim. To discuss the case, there has been no charge to you. Please check whether you have any household, car, credit/debit card insurances that may have a legal protection attached to them (often referred to as Legal Expense Cover or BTE - Before the Event insurance). The policy ought to have been in place at the time of the alleged negligence. I therefore suggest that the starting point is for you to check through any insurance policies that you have to see whether or not you have any legal expense cover. Often they can exclude clinical negligence matters but I do feel it is worth checking this area. If you would like to discuss this further, I would be more than happy to do so.

The other option is that you might be eligible for Legal Aid. We talked briefly about this and if you do not have any Before the Event funding and if certain criteria apply, we may be able to secure Legal Aid funding.

Legal Aid is a twofold test, 1) on merits and 2) on your finances. Because of your finances, you should financially qualify. On the merits, I will need to prepare a statement to Legal Aid saying why I believe you should be granted Legal Aid to investigate { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 }'s case.

If you are granted legal aid, then it is likely that a certificate will be awarded, which will enable me to take various steps, namely obtain { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 }'s records, independent medical expert opinion and a Barrister's Advice thereafter. If we cannot prove that there has been negligence at that stage, Legal Aid will pay me, the Barrister and the experts involved. There is no charge to you. Likewise, if we could say that at the first stage it is likely that we could show there is negligence, we would proceed to the next stage and your legal aid would be limited further. The financial limit, which initially would be approximately £7500 - 10000 would probably be increased. If we get to the next stage, and again we cannot prove negligence or we cannot succeed against the other parties, if we become involved in Court proceedings, again Legal Aid will pay me the Barrister, the experts involved.

If { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 } has the benefit of legal aid, the other side cannot ask that you pay their costs. This continues until the conclusion of the case. If you lose your case, then you are protected by Legal Aid. If you win, then you are granted an award of damages and this time, rather than Legal Aid paying me, the other side have to pay the costs. Providing all of the costs are paid, then you will be paid all of your damages. There is a legal aid 'statutory charge' and this is when there could be a shortfall in the amount of costs that are paid by the other side, for example, we had had a negative report, which was never disclosed to the other side. It rarely happens but it is there and I will advise you as the case progresses as to whether or not I think it is likely that the statutory charge will have to be used.

If { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 } is legally aided I will write to you on a six monthly basis to tell you how much public money has been spent on the case. This is not a request for payment but is to tell you how much public money has been spent. It is a reminder to you that Legal Aid views the granting of the certificate to you as a very serious matter and that public money should not be wasted in any way.

I remind you of your duty to let legal aid know immediately if you obtain some capital and/or your work and your finances change. They can then reassess your eligibility and you may still qualify or you may qualify but have to pay a legal aid contribution.

I did discuss that Legal Aid may assess that you can pay a contribution towards the cost of your case. This is payable for the life of the case. If we cannot proceed or lose, you will lose the amount of money that you have paid to legal aid up until that point. In some very rare cases if you lost a court case, the defendants could ask that you pay to them the same amount that you have paid in legal aid contributions at that time. We are not obliged to tell the other side that you are paying contributions but if they ask, we have to tell them. If you win Legal aid will return the contributions to you, subject to any 'statutory charge'.

In some cases and scenarios, Legal Aid could be discharged, in which case Legal Aid would pay all of the costs but if they felt that you had been unreasonable or failed to disclose information to them within a reasonable period of time, they could revoke the certificate, which means that whilst they would still pay me, they may then seek recovery of whatever monies they pay out to us, from you. Again, this very, very rarely happens. If you win the case, then you would receive full reimbursement of the legal aid contributions, subject to any statutory charge.

I enclose the MEANS1 form for you to complete. This is the form which asks about your household finances. I also enclose two form L17's one for yourself and one for your partner to complete. These need to be passed to your employers as they need to give the information about your finances. Please return them to me in the stamped addressed envelope provided as soon as possible. I will also send you another Legal Aid form for signature shortly. This will be the form that sets out who the parties are and has a brief summary of what the case is about.

If the funding options discussed above are not available, we would need to consider if the matter is suitable for a 'No Win, No Fee' agreement (Conditional Fee Agreement or CFA). This will mean that if we are not successful in your claim, we would waive our fees. Before proceeding with such an agreement, we must firstly ensure you do not have any Before the Event insurance and consider whether the case would be suitable for a 'no, win, no fee' agreement based on our assessment of the strengths of your case.

If the matter did go on to be funded by way of a 'no win, no fee' agreement, I can advise that if you were successful with a claim of this nature, you would be liable to pay for the following:

- Our base costs calculated by how much time we spend working on your matter based on our hourly rate as set out in the CFA. As a general rule you can expect to recover a portion of this from the defendant. There are factors that can affect the amount of base costs recoverable from the defendant, which we will advise you upon when such factors arise.
- A success fee would be payable from any damages that you receive. Again, this will be set out in the CFA. This is the fee to account for our risk of not being paid our base cost in the event you are not successful in your claim. You are liable for the success fee in full and cannot be recovered from the defendant.

- Any disbursements we pay out on your behalf such as court fees or medial expert fees. As a general rule you can expect to recover a portion of this from the defendant and you would be required to pay any shortfall in the amounts payable. There are again factors that can affect the value of disbursements recoverable from the defendant, which we will advise you upon when such factors arise.
- Any fee for a barrister instructed in your behalf. A barrister would normally also be instructed on a no win no fee basis and details of any such agreement would ne advised at the time. If a no win no fee arrangement cannot be agreed with a barrister, the fees would be treated the same as any other disbursement as detailed above.

If you were not successful with your claim, you would not be liable to pay our base costs or the success fee but you would be required to pay any disbursements, barrister costs and the defendants costs.

If the matter were to proceed via a CFA, we would also need to consider obtaining what is known as 'after the event' insurance (ATE) to provide you with further protection. This will cover the legal costs payable to the defendant in the event that the claimant's claim is unsuccessful. I will write to you separately regarding this if required.

I look forward to hearing from you further. Please ensure in the meantime that you keep safe any evidence- such as prescription, letter of complaint/response, medicine boxes etc. if you need to contact me please do not hesitate to do so.

Finally, I must remind you of the time limits applicable to claims for clinical negligence. The law requires all individuals who have sustained personal injuries as a result of another's acts/omissions to bring a claim (that is to issue Court proceedings) within three years of the date of the alleged negligence or three years from the date upon which they suspected/believed or ought reasonably have suspected/believed that they may have suffered as a result of another's acts/omissions. A failure to do so may result in them being prevented from bringing a claim about the matter in the future.

I look forward to hearing from you as to whether you do have 'Before the Event' insurance or whether you wish for us to consider matters under a CFA as above.{ IF { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_CLI_INFO_FW_CN_NHS_COMP } = "No" "Please can you also let me know whether you will be pursuing the NHS complaints procedure as discussed." Of course, should you have any difficulties or queries upon receipt of this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

To assist you in your report, we enclose copies of the following:

Our client's allegation is that

Please review the records to determine whether our client can demonstrate on the balance of probabilities that the treatment afforded to { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "him" "her" } fell below the standard of care { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "he" "she" } was entitled to expect. It is the relevant standard of medical care prevailing rather than that which prevails now.

Please confirm that all of the relevant clinical notes have been disclosed to your satisfaction.

Questions

We should be grateful if you would consider the following questions in your report. However, we value your views generally, and we ask that you do not restrict your report to dealing with these points only:

1.

Standard of Proof

It is for our client to prove each element of the claim, on the balance of probabilities, that is, more likely than not. It is not necessary for our client to prove matters beyond reasonable doubt, as in criminal matters.

[Factual Disputes]

It is for the court and not the experts, to resolve factual disputes. Where a factual matter is pertinent to a conclusion, the conclusion should be provided in the alternative.

Liability

It is also for our client to prove that the hospital staff failed to reach the appropriate standard of care. Consequently, it will be necessary to show that the hospital staff failed to take such action as a reasonably competent health professional in the same fields would have done. If a substantial body of reasonably competent health professional in the same fields would, on the balance of probabilities, have taken the course of action that the healthcare professionals did in this case, then our client cannot say that they have been negligent.

If the body of health professionals referred to above, would have taken the same approach as the health professional in this case, they should be able to demonstrate a logical basis for this decision. If you are aware of any argument that the defendant may put forward in respect of this case, we would welcome your view as to whether any such argument has a sound medical basis. If you are aware of any counter arguments which may be put forward, we also look forward to hearing those.

Causation

If and when we have successfully established fault on the part of the health professional it will then be necessary to show that the fault did, on the balance of probabilities, directly cause or materially contribute to the damage/loss of which our client complains (again on the balance of probabilities. If our client would have suffered [] in any event, regardless of the negligent acts which may be identified, then it will not be possible for our client to receive compensation.

A material contribution does not have to be a substantial contribution, and causation may be established if the contribution was more than negligible/de minimis to the Claimant's injury.

Again, if you are aware of any arguments which the defendant may put forward on causation, together with any counter arguments, we look forward to considering these.

Please consider the liability of the hospital staff by reference to contemporary medical literature.

Structure of Report

Please produce your report in the normal A4 style and please ensure that your report is identified by number or purpose (e.g. preliminary) so that easy reference can be made in the future. Please also identify the clinical notes referred to in your report precisely and use the page numbers referred to in the enclosed A4 file of notes. It would also be of assistance if you would explain any complicated terminology and use diagrams where appropriate.

Please also provide an appendix to your report giving details of your qualifications and experience and also providing copies of any literature upon which you have relied.

Please also ensure that in order to comply with the Court rules you should insert above your signature, a statement that the contents of your report are true to the best of your knowledge and belief.

Meeting with Client

If it is necessary for our client to attend upon you, please let us know so that we can make suitable arrangements.

Conference with Counsel

There is a possibility that upon receipt of your report, we will wish to hold a conference with Counsel at which we would appreciate your attendance. Please let us have details of any dates that you know you will not be able to attend in the twelve weeks after you send your report to us.

You may or may not be aware that the Part 35 CPR Rules have changed in respect of the statement of truth that is now required in an expert's report. The new declaration should be worded as follows: 'I confirm that I have made clear which facts and matters in this report are within my own knowledge and which are not. Questions

We should be grateful if you would consider the following questions in your report. However, we value your views generally, and we ask that you do not restrict your report to dealing with these points only:

Standard of Proof

It is for our client to prove each element of the claim, on the balance of probabilities, that is, more likely than not. It is not necessary for our client to prove matters beyond reasonable doubt, as in criminal matters.

[Factual Disputes]

It is for the court and not the experts, to resolve factual disputes. Where a factual matter is pertinent to a conclusion, the conclusion should be provided in the alternative.

Liability

It is also for our client to prove that the hospital staff failed to reach the appropriate standard of care. Consequently, it will be necessary to show that the hospital staff failed to take such action as a reasonably competent health professional in the same fields would have done. If a substantial body of reasonably competent health professional in the same fields would, on the balance of probabilities, have taken the course of action that the healthcare professionals did in this case, then our client cannot say that they have been negligent.

If the body of health professionals referred to above, would have taken the same approach as the health professional in this case, they should be able to demonstrate a logical basis for this decision. If you are aware of any argument that the defendant may put forward in respect of this case, we would welcome your view as to whether any such argument has a sound medical basis. If you are aware of any counter arguments which may be put forward, we also look forward to hearing those.

Causation

If and when we have successfully established fault on the part of the health professional it will then be necessary to show that the fault did, on the balance of probabilities, directly cause or materially contribute to the damage/loss of which our client complains (again on the balance of probabilities. If our client would have suffered [] in any event, regardless of the negligent acts which may be identified, then it will not be possible for our client to receive compensation.

A material contribution does not have to be a substantial contribution, and causation may be established if the contribution was more than negligible/de minimis to the Claimant's injury.

Again, if you are aware of any arguments which the defendant may put forward on causation, together with any counter arguments, we look forward to considering these.

Please consider the liability of the hospital staff by reference to contemporary medical literature.

Structure of Report

Please produce your report in the normal A4 style and please ensure that your report is identified by number or purpose (e.g. preliminary) so that easy reference can be made in the future. Please also identify the clinical notes referred to in your report precisely and use the page numbers referred to in the enclosed A4 file of notes. It would also be of assistance if you would explain any complicated terminology and use diagrams where appropriate.

Please also provide an appendix to your report giving details of your qualifications and experience and also providing copies of any literature upon which you have relied.

Please also ensure that in order to comply with the Court rules you should insert above your signature, a statement that the contents of your report are true to the best of your knowledge and belief.

Meeting with Client

If it is necessary for our client to attend upon you, please let us know so that we can make suitable arrangements.

Conference with Counsel

There is a possibility that upon receipt of your report, we will wish to hold a conference with Counsel at which we would appreciate your attendance. Please let us have details of any dates that you know you will not be able to attend in the twelve weeks after you send your report to us.

You may or may not be aware that the Part 35 CPR Rules have changed in respect of the statement of truth that is now required in an expert's report. The new declaration should be worded as follows: 'I confirm that I have made clear which facts and matters in this report are within my own knowledge and which are not. Those that are within my own knowledge I confirm to be true. The opinions that I have expressed represent my true and complete professional opinions on the matters to which they refer'.

Should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact us. Once again we thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Please review the records to determine whether our client can demonstrate on the balance of probabilities that the treatment afforded to { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "him" "her" } fell below the standard of care { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "he" "she" } was entitled to expect. The relevant standard of care is whether the medical staff's conduct fell below the standard that could have been expected from a responsible body of competent health professionals in the same fields who were skilled in their art at that time. It is the relevant standard of medical care prevailing rather than that which prevails now.

Please confirm that all of the relevant clinical notes have been disclosed to your satisfaction.

You will no doubt recall having prepared a Medical Report dated { ASK repdate "Enter the date of the report." } { REF repdate \@ "d MMMM yyyy" * MERGEFORMAT } on the injuries sustained by our above-named client.

Would you please provide us with the following:

You will no doubt recall having prepared a Medical Report dated { ASK repdate "Enter the date of the report." } { REF repdate \@ "d MMMM yyyy" * MERGEFORMAT } on the injuries sustained by our above-named client.

We have now reached the stage where the case is finally ready to be set down for Trial. At this stage the Defendants' Solicitors have not formally agreed your Report. It may be that they will do so, but we must assume that they will not at this stage.

Would you please provide us with the following:

1. A list of all of the dates that must be avoided if you are to attend Court to give oral evidence;
2. Your charges for attending Court, taking into account that the Trial will take place at { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_COURT_FW_CN_COURT_name };
3. Your cancellation charges for late notification that you are no longer required to attend Court.

We are obliged to supply the Court with these details by { ASK courtdate "Enter the date by which dates to Court must be supplied." } { REF courtdate \@ "d MMMM yyyy" * MERGEFORMAT }, and we would therefore be grateful to receive your reply as soon as possible.

Yours Sincerely

Re: { MERGEFIELD MATTER MATTER DESCRIPTION }

Thank you for your instructions to act for you in respect of { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_SURNAME_1" }'s medical negligence claim.

This letter explains the basis on which we will carry out all the work in relation to { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s case. As the parent/guardian of { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_SURNAME_1" }, { IF { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_CLI_INFO_FW_CN_CLI_LIT } = "Yes" "a minor " "" } unless we hear from you to the contrary, we assume that you will be { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "his" "her" } nominated 'litigation friend' and will be responsible for providing instructions in relation to { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s case.

A litigation friend is also responsible for any costs which may be payable by a minor or patient should a cost order be awarded against the minor/patient. However, a minor/patient is usually entitled to public funding, and under the relevant statutes, if a court is considering whether or not to make a cost order against a legally aided party, (s)he must look at the legally aided party's financial circumstances. As public funding is granted to those without their own financial resources, it is most unlikely that a court will require the legally aided party to pay costs.

Legal Help

In light of the information you have provided, we assessed { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s eligibility for Legal Help. { IF { MERGEFIELD FW_CN_CLI_INFO_FW_CN_CLI_LIT } = "Yes" "As a minor" "" }, { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } qualifies for this preliminary form of funding. As { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } qualifies we will be able to do work up to the value of £249 plus VAT on { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s behalf.

These figures allow us to meet with you and others, travel when necessary, consider, prepare and work on papers, enter into and consider incoming correspondence, make and receive telephone calls on your behalf, consider any issues which arise and keep you informed of matter. However, it is not possible for us to attend Court on your behalf.

In extenuating circumstances, if further work is required, we may be able to apply for an extension of this financial limit to a maximum of £500.00 plus VAT, but if it is refused, it will be your responsibility to cover the cost of the additional work requested by you which exceeds the existing limit. If we do not recover costs from your opponent but { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } recovers compensation or property, these costs may be repayable to the Legal Aid Agency by { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } from damages received.

The Legal Aid Agency which provides Legal Help funding will pay your legal costs as follows:

- £47.80 per hour for attendance upon individuals and documentation and preparation;
- £37.50 per hour for telephone calls and letters.
- £26.80 for travelling and waiting.

Our charges are calculated mainly by reference to the amount of time that we spend on a matter.

Routine letters that we write and routine telephone calls that we make and receive will be charged as units of 1/10th of an hour. Other letters and calls will be charged on a time basis.

We will add VAT to our charges at the rate that applies when the work is done. VAT is 20% at present.

Please note that unnecessary telephone calls received or made at your request have the potential to eat into the funding before initial investigations/work has been finalized.

CLS Funding certificates for Legal Representation

If you apply for a Funding certificate on behalf of { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }, your application forms will be submitted to the Legal Aid Agency but it may take them 3-4 weeks to deal with your application. If they calculate that { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } is financially eligible for a Funding certificate they will then look at the chances of { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s case succeeding and the likelihood of the opponent being able to pay { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "his" "her" } legal costs. The Legal Aid Agency will notify you of their decision and can issue a Funding Certificate, an Offer of Funding or refuse { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s application. In the latter case you can appeal against their decision, if appropriate

Financial Changes and Discharge of Funding Certificates

If and when { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } is granted a Funding certificate you have a duty to disclose any changes in { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 }'s circumstances, including a change of address or financial circumstances. If there is any increase in { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s finances during the time { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } is in receipt of Funding, this may affect the amount of any contribution that has to be paid towards the costs of { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s case. As soon as there is any change in { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s circumstances you should inform us and notify the Legal Aid Agency. If { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } becomes financially ineligible for Funding { MERGEFIELD LINKNAME_FORENAME_1 } certificate will be discharged. { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } may be asked to make a contribution towards the costs incurred by the Legal Aid Agency up to the date of discharge of your certificate. However, as a minor, this is most unlikely unless { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "he" "she" } has, for example, money settled in a trust. The Legal Aid Agency can also discharge { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s Funding Certificate if our investigations show that it is unlikely that { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "his" "her" } claim for compensation will be successful. The Legal Aid Agency will pay the costs incurred by us, { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s experts and Counsel until the date the certificate is discharged but you will be responsible for paying for any additional work after that date.

Funding Contributions and Revocation of Funding Certificates

You may be required to pay a monthly contribution towards the costs of the case in which case the Legal Aid Agency will send you an Offer of Funding setting out the amount you have to pay. We cannot start work on { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s case, under the terms of the Certificate, until you accept the offer and start to make payments in accordance with that offer. The Legal Aid Agency will then issue a Funding Certificate. Again, it is highly unlikely that a contribution will be payable on { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s certificate. If { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s income or capital position changes you should inform us and notify the Legal Aid Agency who will re-assess your contribution. Failure to keep up to date with payment of contributions may result in { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s Funding Certificate being revoked or cancelled and you may have to pay all or some of the costs incurred by us, your experts and Counsel up to the date your certificate was cancelled. You would lose all contributions paid to the Legal Aid Agency. Funding contributions are payable throughout the entirety of your case and have to be paid even after the work we do on your behalf has been completed. If you cannot afford the contributions you should notify the Legal Aid Agency immediately. The Legal Aid Agency can also revoke or cancel your Funding Certificate if you provide them with false information about your financial resources or you do not co-operate with them or us by providing requested information. As you may be asked to repay { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s costs in full it is important that you keep in touch with us and do not abandon your case without discussing the implications with us.

If { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } is successful and recovers compensation and legal commission will repay to { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } some or all of the contributions which have been paid on { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "his" "her" } behalf. As noted above, it is extremely unlikely that { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } will be required to pay a contribution.

The Statutory Charge

The Legal Aid Agency has a charge over any money or property that is recovered or preserved as a result of a case for which { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } has a Funding Certificate, whether by settlement or court order.

This means that we cannot release { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s compensation immediately and the compensation will be put on deposit pending payment of { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s legal costs. If the opponent pays { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s costs in full, the compensation, plus interest, will be released. If { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s costs are not paid in full by { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "his" "her" } opponent, the Legal Aid Agency may ask for re-payment of some or all of { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s legal costs from the compensation.

If { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } wins { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "his" "her" } case the opponent may not be ordered to pay the full amount of { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s costs because, for example:

A medical report was obtained, because it was not favorable to { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }, it was not disclosed to the opponent;

The court considers that too much time was spent on { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s file because we were required to attend upon you too often for too long;

There was more than one opponent involved in the case but only one of them is ordered to pay { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } compensation and costs, and { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s compensation may be used to pay the costs of the additional opponents against whom you were unsuccessful. In some cases your opponent may not be capable of paying the costs they have been ordered to pay to you.

The court will decide whether or not these costs should be paid by the opponent and if not, whether they can be deducted from { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s compensation. This procedure is called detailed assessment and may take 6 months.

Losing your case

If { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } loses { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "his" "her" } case, the court may order payment of the opponent's costs, even though all or some of { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s costs will be paid by the Legal Aid Agency. The amount to be paid towards the opponent's costs will depend upon whether or not { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } has had to pay a contribution towards { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "his" "her" } own costs. Usually { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } will only be ordered to pay an amount equal to the contribution { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" } has made towards { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "his" "her" } own legal costs. Costs in excess of this will only be payable if { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s opponent returns to court and shows that { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "his" "her" } financial position has altered and { IF { MERGEFIELD CLI1_ADD_INFO_FW_CLI1_GENDER } = "Male" "he" "she" } can now afford to pay all their costs.

In these circumstances { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s costs will be paid by the Legal Aid Agency. Because of the Statutory Charge we shall try to keep the costs to a minimum. Whilst it is difficult to give a precise figure for the likely cost of pursuing an action such at this stage, we would estimate that they should be in the region of £{ MERGEFIELD FW_CN_COSTS_FW_CN_COST_EST }. Costs vary depending upon the amount of work we have to carry out in each case but are likely to be a lower figure if the case is settled quickly without a court hearing involving experts and Counsel.

We will update our estimate of costs every 6 months and at the same time give you an indication of the costs already incurred.

We should point out to you that although we have a duty to act in { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s best interests, we also have a duty to the Legal Aid Agency to ensure that public money is not wasted. We must inform them if { MERGEFIELD "LINKNAME_FORENAME_1" }'s case is weak or if you unreasonably refuse offers of settlement.

Yours sincerely

BMA Law Society Consent Form

BMA/The Law Society consent form

Consent form (Releasing health records under the General Data Protection Regulation and the Data Protection Act 2018)

Your health records

Your health records typically contain information from almost all consultations and contacts you have had with health professionals in the practice and information sent to the practice about you from others, such as hospital letters.

The information they contain usually includes:

- why you saw a health professional;
- details of clinical findings and diagnoses, investigations, tests and scans;
- any options or recommendations for care and treatment the health professional discussed with you;
- the decisions made about your care and treatment, including evidence that you agreed; and
- details of actions health professionals have taken and the outcomes.

Why your records are needed and what may happen to them

If you are making, or considering making, a legal claim for compensation related to an injury to your health, your solicitor will likely need to see copies of all your GP records. They will also need any hospital records made in connection with the incident and others that may be relevant. This is to enable the solicitor to understand the incident and your injury and give you legal advice on the merits and value of your claim.

If you decide to go ahead with your claim, your solicitor may advise that it is sensible (or that it may be necessary) to give copies of your records to:

- the expert whom your solicitor or agent instructs to produce a medical report as evidence for the case;
- the insurance company for the person or body you are making a claim against;
- the person or the body you are making a claim against and/or their solicitors;
- any insurance company or other organisation paying or providing an indemnity for your legal costs; and
- any other person (such as a barrister) or body (such as the court) officially involved with the claim.

Once you start your claim, the court can order you to give copies of your health records to the solicitor of the person you are making a claim against so he or she can see if any of the information in your records can be used to defend his or her client. The solicitor of the person or body you are making the claim against will likely show your records to their client in the normal course of advising them and may show them to others too (such as a barrister or medical expert). If the person you are making the claim against does not have a legal representative the court can order you to give copies to them directly.

You do not have to give permission for your health records to be obtained and disclosed in your case but if you don't, it is unlikely that your claim will be able to proceed if the medical records are crucial evidence in your claim. The court may not let you go ahead with your claim and your solicitor may be unable to continue to represent you.

If there is very sensitive information in the records that is not connected to the claim you should tell your solicitor. They will then consider whether this information may be relevant and needs to be disclosed in the case. Your solicitor can advise you on this and if appropriate may advise you to discuss the matter with your medical practitioner.

Part c – your solicitor’s or agent’s declaration and signature

Before you ask your client to fill in and sign this form you should ask your client to read the notes above. You should explain that signing this form will permit release of his or her complete health records and how the information in them may be used. You should explain that this form only applies to the release of the medical record to you and that separate consent will be obtained for any onward disclosures which are required.

If your client is not capable of giving his or her permission in this form, it may be possible for someone to give consent and sign it on their behalf, for example:

- your client’s litigation friend;
- someone who has enduring/lasting power of attorney to act for your client; or
- your client’s deputy appointed by the Court of Protection.

You must only use health records for specific purposes that your client has agreed to in advance.

Under the General Data Protection Regulation and Data Protection Act 2018 you have responsibilities relating to sensitive information. The entire health record should not be revealed without the client’s permission and you should not keep health records for any longer than is necessary for agreed-to purposes. You should return copies of health records to the client at the end of the claim if they want them. If they do not want them, you will be responsible for confidentially destroying them.

To health professionals

I have told my client the implications of giving me access to his or her health records. I confirm that I need the full records in this case.

Notes for the medical records controller

This form shows your patient’s permission for you to give copies of his or her complete record, and any hospital and other records relating to this incident, to his or her solicitor or agent.

You must give the solicitor or agent copies of these health records unless any of the exemptions set out in Schedules 3 and 4 of the Data Protection Act 2018 apply. The main exemptions are that you must not release information that:

- is likely to cause serious physical or mental harm to the patient or another person; or
- relates to someone who would normally need to give their permission (where that person is not a health professional who has cared for the patient).

Your patient’s permission for you to release information is valid only if that patient understands the consequences of his or her records being released, and how the information will be used. The solicitor or agent named on this form must explain these issues to the patient. If you have any doubt about whether this has happened, you should contact the solicitor or agent, or your patient.

This form does not contain a comprehensive statement of solicitors’ or health professionals’ obligations under the relevant data protection legislation. If you are in any doubt about your legal obligations, seek advice.
